BLAIRMORE ALBERTA

The United States has crossed the bar of the Coleman hotel with Mexico, and the capture of Vera Cruz and Tampico was announced on Wednesday forenoon.

The bar of the Coleman hotel was temporarily closed on Monday day of this week following certain complaints made to the liquor department.

Irwin vs. Blairmore Is Heard at Macleod

The action of J. R. Irwin against the Town of Blairmore came up for hearing before Justice Walsh at Macleod today, and judgment was reserved until Wednesday next.

L. H. Putnam and Colin Macleod appeared for the town, while H. H. Roberts, of Coleman, represented Mr. Irwin.

This was an action taken by J. R. Irwin against the town for wrongful dismissal from the position of chief of police. Mr. Irwin claimed wages for balance of 1914, and damages to the extent of $3000.

Mr. Irwin was appointed chief of police for the town by resolution empowering the Mayor and Secretary-Treasurer to enter into an agreement with him as chief of police. A document was signed by the mayor and secretary-treasurer under the corporate seal, but the contents of the agreement were not made known to the council until after Mr. Irwin was given notice of dismissal, when the document was brought to the notice of the council, and it was found to embody protection for the chief of police, and very small consideration for the town.

The town solicitor thought it was just a question, whether or not this contract could be considered binding, and stated similar cases that had been tried in the Ontario courts, where the ruling in all was in favor of the town.

The act does not require the council to enter into a contract with such official, and the council have the power to dismiss him at any time. These are points upon which the judges

Although a number of witnesses were present, none of them were called to give evidence, and the case lasted only forty minutes.

On being questioned by the judge, it was learned that Mr. Irwin has been out of employment since receiving his discharge from the town, that he has made several futile efforts to secure a position, and is yet "a member of the vast army of unemployed."

Mining Institute Had Meeting at Fernie

At the regular meeting of the Rocky Mountain branch of the Canadian Mining Institute held at Fernie on Wednesday the following gentlemen were present: W. R. Irwin, general manager Grosvenor West Pass Coal Co., president; John T. Sheeling, Chief Inspector of Mines, Edmonton, secretary; Lewis Stockett, Francis Aspinall, W. F. McNeil, Calgary; Robert Hamilton, Rediff; Samuel Jones, J. A. Richard, Robert Livingston, A. N. Scott, C. P. Fisher, J. E. Reid, Lethbridge; J. S. Goulet, W. J. Hucheson, John Brown, Hillcrest; W. G. Flint, Camrose; Wm. Shaw, Horner; Charles Graham, Corbin; R. H. Morris, Pocatoung; G. A. Laval, Frank; O. E. S. Whiteside, Coleman; Duncan McDonald, Lethbridge; J. L. Cole, M. P. F. Edmonton; Adam Reid, Camrose; C. A. Seaton, Corbin; J. R. Macdonald, Bellevue. Papers were read on mine rescue work by Chas. Graham and Francis Aspinall, and discussed by members during the day, and in the evening Mr. W. R. Irwin entertained the visitors and others to an opera house party.

George Skelding, of Macleod, has the contract to move the Union hotel to the new Frank township, and will likely begin operations next week.

International City-Planning Conference

During the last five years National Conferences on City Planning have been held annually in various cities of the United States, and have aroused such widespread interest that many American communities are now anxious to have the Conference held in their city and are willing to contribute the funds for that purpose. The city of Toronto, therefore, is to be congratulated on being the first place on this side of the International boundary to entertain the Conference, which this year will become international in scope and character. The financial difficulties have been overcome by a generous grant from the Dominion Government, which has appointed the Commission on Conservation to act as the City of Toronto are contributing. The question of city planning is thus recognized to be a national, provincial and municipal concern, and Field-Marshal H. H. the Duke of Connaught, the Governor General, has graciously consented to open the Conference and to give an address.

The substantial assistance given by the Dominion government is evidence that the town-dweller, equally with the agricultural, is receiving attention, and that not only the Federal capital, but all our Canadian cities are receiving from the Federal authorities such advice and assistance as the Congress will afford them. Invitations have been sent to all the cities and towns in the Dominion, requesting them to send delegations to the Conference and it is hoped that many will take advantage of the opportunity. Money could be spent to no greater advantage than in giving some of our City Councils the opportunity to come into contact with experts in civic planning.

The address will carry home ideas that, put into practice, will save our town-people millions of dollars, besides acquiring a new sense of the responsibilities of their office and higher ideals of civic administration. The scope of the Conference may be judged by a glance at some of the topics which will form the main theme of discussion. Among these may be cited: The Relative Importance of City Planning as Compared with all other Functions of City Government; by Andrew Wright Crawford, editor of the city-planning section of the "Public Ledger"; Provision for Future Rapid Transit, by J. V. Davies, consulting engineer for the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company; Rapid Transit and the Auto Bus, by John A. McCullum, assistant engineer, Board of Estimate and Apportionment, New York City; Protecting Residential Districts, by Lawrence Veiler, secretary and director of the National Association, New York City; Toronto's Water Front Development, by R. S. Goulet, of the Toronto Harbor Board; A Consideration of the Principles and Procedure of a Canadian Town-Planning Act, a draft of which is now being prepared by a special committee appointed by the Commission of Conservation; and Recreation Facilities in the City Plan, by Henry V. Hubbard, professor of landscape architecture in Harvard University.

Additional interesting features will be a tour of the city and harbor of Toronto, luncheon topics, and an open session for the discussion of subjects to be submitted by members of the Conference.

L. Dutil, F. E. Hinde, R. M. Brisco, D. C. Drais, W. A. Bees, D. A. Sinclair and H. E. Lyon went down to Macleod today to attend the suit of J. R. Irwin against the town.

Of Great Value to

Coal Companies

The Post understands that some improved plan or method has been sought by coal companies to save the cost of droning the shipping port cases; and with this in view Mr. J. Mullins of this city has given considerable attention to the matter, with the result that he has, so the Post learns, produced a coal chute that will deliver coal shipped from the highest pier into the hold of the ship practically in same condition as when it leaves the car, and will permit of the coal being loaded equally as fast as at present.

Polo Players to Hold Spring Tournament

The Western Canada Polo Association held a meeting at Calgary this week, when it was decided to hold the spring tournament under the auspices of the association at Macleod, commencing July 14. The autumn tournament, place and date, is to be decided later.

The meeting was most enthusiastic and representative of all the clubs in Alberta, as well as Kelowna and Vancouver, B. C.

F. S. Griffiths, president, and H. Cosgrove, manager of the Spokane team, both gave a glance at some of the trophies to be won by the polo teams compete at the international polo tournament held in connection with the fair. Several western clubs will probably take part in the tourney.

There are eight polo clubs in southern Alberta, at Fish Creek, Cochrane, High River, Millerville, Macleod, Cowley, Pincher Creek and North Fork.

W. S. Hobkirk returned to town on Tuesday night, accompanied by Mrs. Hobkirk, who has been enjoying a visit to the Old Country.

LOOK TO YOUR PLUMBING

You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other disease. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief. For sale by all dealers.

The regular meeting of the Blairmore council will be held on Monday night next.

A Suggestion.

Young Mother—If really don't know why he cries so.

Bachelor Friend—Perhaps it is his teeth coming through. But she says Young Mother—No! He isn't teething.

Uncomprehended Luxuries.

You go to hear music that you don't understand?

"Yes," admitted Mr. Connor.

"And say good money for it?"

"Well, I may not understand it as to some that I don't understand it as to some."—Washington Star.

Reason Enough.

"Why, Betty?" admonished her older sister, "what do you mean by allowing that young fellow to kiss you?"

"I couldn't help it, Jennie," replied Betty, "really I couldn't; he—er—promised me so!"—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

Galatry.

"I am just starting out in the city," remarked the young man.

"The world is your oyster," suggested the young lady.

"Yes, and I have found a pearl right away!"—Kansas City Journal.

A Cutting Remark.

"Don't you own me since you per—"

"And your own race?" asked the barber.

"New?" replied the groom. "I talk to myself when I am shaving."—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

Waiting.

"Does your wife ever say you?" asked the first waiting gentleman.

"No," answered the second. "We're never married a year. She calls it coining."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Promising All Right.

Bill—Don't you think he has a prom—

No Offense Meant.

Stude—I wonder what makes me so fat to be thick?

Barber—Perhaps it's this going around with your head so much.—Columbian.

"When you were in Japan did you see any of the beautiful girls as here so much about?"

"No. All the Japanese girls I saw looked like Japs."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Undepleted Statement.

"Do you think it hurts you to smoke cigarettes?"

"I know it does. My paw caught me smokin' on the other day, and I didn't get over it yet!"—Detroit Free Press.

Teacher—Willie.

Teacher—Willie, if you don't behave yourself I'll write a note to your father.

Willie—You do, and you'll make me jealous.—Boston Transcript.

Oh, Shush!

Gabe—What happened to Jones, the fellow who had the itching for politics?

Steve—Oh, he was scratched at the neck.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Noncommittal.

"Do you propose to marry?" asked Miss Pitters of young Mr. Butterfield.

"No, I haven't," replied the young man, "but I am in a tone which forbids further inquiries."—Pittsburgh Courier.

He Knew.

"What's most likely to get broke about your automobile?"

"The owner," replied Mr. Chuggins.—Livingston News.

Unpardonable.

"What are your reasons for wanting a divorce, madam?" inquired the judge.

"You live in apartment luxury?"

"It failed to support me for a maintenance that I wanted."—Washington Times.

Sympathy.

exultingly exclaimed John Love rich, bundling in upon his mother and stated, "Well, recently has accepted me, and I'm the happiest man alive!"

"Why, John! But she is the dearest, sweetest, loveliest girl in the world," said John Lovelock, "and I want you to go to my room and tell her how I feel."

"Of course not," said John.

"Don't you I don't think I can go to my room," said the mother.

"And I'm sure I can't," said John.

"Mother," said John, "Can't you arrange it somehow?"

"I'm sure she's a nice girl," said the mother. "I know my John wouldn't suppose himself to say one his mother didn't approve of."

"Of course not," said John.

"I don't see why you're in such a hurry to have us call on her," said the mother.

"Why, I want to tell her what she likes her or not."

"Approve of her? Like her?" said John.

"Yes, why, I want to know whether she likes you,"—Lucky.

Calling the Bluff.

The following exchange of contrast was recently chronicled in a German newspaper.

"The gentleman who found a brown horse's advertisement."

"The Blumensatter is requested to forward it to the address of the loser, as he is responsible for the largest unworked coal field of the world."

The possibility of a gold reef in the Antarctic region was also mentioned by the speaker. It was almost certain that the Blumensatter would be discovered soon. Sir Ernest Shackleton's discovery in the forthcoming expedition. "This is the last thing left to be done."

There may be other corn cures, but the Blumensatter's cure is the best of the list as far as results are concerned.

Bellevue Happenings

Mrs. Ridd was a Coleman visitor on Monday.

Wilfred Coupland was up from Burnis on Sunday.

Robert Dicken has also joined the movement across the slide.

T. M. Barnett was a business visitor in Lethbridge this week.

Mrs. Watts Goodwin was a Blairmore visitor on Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Crawford, of Cranbrook, spent Easter in the camp.

Mrs. Andrew Goodwin was a visitor in Blairmore on Saturday.

Mrs. J. B. Ridd went down to Lethbridge on Wednesday to visit her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Coupland, of Burnis, were week-end visitors in the camp.

The Bellevue band will play in Blairmore for the Oddfellows parade on Sunday next.

Fred Beal, the local pugilist, has secured a position in Frank and is migrating over the slide.

Several of the district officials visited the camp on Sunday and addressed the Sunday meeting.

Mr. McElrick, of Fernie, was a visitor in Bellevue last week.

Mr. Andrew Goodwin.

Mr. MacKenzie moved his family up from Maple last last week and is occupying the house vacated by Donald McMillan.

Irma, the little daughter of Noble Macdonald, is laid up with internal poisoning. It is hoped that Irma will soon recover.

A local strike among the miners was called on Tuesday, because of an order refusing the use of powder in the drawing of pillars.

James Gray, of Inverness, spent Easter in town with relatives and left on Tuesday for Bellevue, Alta.—Westville Free Lance.

Tom Marsh and Fred Parker, local bootleggers, have been engaged in Frank mine, and will likely appear on the Frank team this year.

A class in first aid has been formed. It met in the schoolhouse on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, under the leadership of Dr. MacKenzie.

A horse attached to a rig from Coleman ran away on Tuesday about four o'clock. The buggy came to grief when the horse took a flying leap over the mine fill.

James Gaudens has severed his relations with the West Canadian Collieries Co., and is driving for A. I. Blais. Jim's pleasant smile will be thrown in with every order from Blais in the future.

A shooting affair took place in the Frank slide one evening last week, as a result of which an Italian from Maple, Leaf is on bail. The affair was the climax of an old feud, and a revolver and knife were freely used. All shots went wild, however, and the shooter pulled out with an ugly gash in the face.

The following is the weekly programme at Bellevue's busy church: Sunday—10:20 a.m., hand practice under G. W. Goodwin; 2 p.m., Sunday School; 2 p.m., in vestry, class in personal purity, sex hygiene and health under G. E. Geary; 8 p.m., public worship; 8:30 p.m., song service and informal discussion.

Monday—4:30 p.m., Junior Epworth League, Miss Florence Hallworth, president; 7:30 p.m., class in mining engineering under Tom Stephenson.

Tuesday—4:30 p.m., class in gymnastics for boys under 10; 8 p.m., class in gymnastics for men.

Wednesday—8 p.m., meeting for communion and prayer.

Thursday—4:30 p.m., class in gymnastics for boys; 8 p.m., class in gymnastics for men.

Friday—7:30 p.m., choir practice.

Saturday—8 p.m., class in gymnastics for men.

Local and General

Saturday was pay-day at the mine.

The mines in this vicinity are now working regularly.

Mrs. L. H. Putnam has been visiting in Macleod this week.

J. B. Reuter, of Lethbridge, returned to town on Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Kidd's maternity home, Box 95, Phone 151. Wedding cakes decorated.

The initiatory degree was conferred by Blairmore I.O.O.F. on Tuesday night.

Moers, Burnett and Cruikshank, of Bellevue and Hillcrest, were in town yesterday.

J. B. Harmer has secured a position in the local post office, as successor to Miss Chatfield.

Dr. J. W. Mackay has purchased an auto, which will greatly assist him in his local practice.

Only a few aristocrats received invitations to the Irwin Blairmore match at Macleod this week.

L. Thorne visited Fernie on Wednesday, in the interest of his company's brick industry there.

Principal Verge returned on Sunday from Lethbridge, where he attended the teachers' convention.

It is reported around Blairmore that a forty-nine-year-old American bachelor at Sentinel is really in love with Scotch.

The many friends of Dr. A. H. Baker will be pleased to learn that he is returning to Alberta, and will take up practice in Edmonton.

The teachers' convention at Lethbridge concluded on Thursday last. Calgary was selected as the next year place of the association next year.

Mrs. W. H. Muncaster will return from Calgary with her husband tonight. Mrs. Muncaster was Blairmore's representative of the Women's Presbyterian.

Another very enjoyable social dance was held by the "Home Life Club" at the home of F. E. Hindon on Wednesday night. O'Brien orchestra furnished excellent music.

Rev. W. T. Young's subject of address to the Oddfellows on Sunday will be "The Relation of Christianity to Brotherhood." The Bellevue orchestra will be in attendance.

Councillor Rosse is spending the week at Macleod—gathering wind for his automobile locomotion. While in the prairie town he will assist in smoothening Blairmore's police affairs.

A Chinese company is being formed for the purpose of operating a steam laundry in Blairmore. We understand that a lot and building have been purchased near the Pelletier addition for the purpose.

Douglas Wilson is busy inventing an ambulance car. "Dog" can make the cars do anything but talk, and a young couple who count the stars from the slide road even accuse his cars of talking.

H. G. Benson, one of our popular young men, has changed his mind and bought some household furniture this week. We understand that the party who intended visiting troubles with him is named "Menzies."

A tuberculosis sanatorium is being planned by the Provincial Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis. The new building will be located between Midford and Radnor, about thirty miles west of Calgary.

The grocery business recently conducted by the Blairmore Trading Co. is being taken over by W. A. Schurr, who intends running a strictly cash grocery business. Mr. Schurr comes from Calgary and has had many years of experience in this particular line of business, and we believe will command a considerable share of local trade. Watch for his opening announcement next week.

Rev. W. H. Muncaster, who has been holidaying at Calgary, during which time he also attended a meeting of the Synod, returns this week, and will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

The Blairmore brass band will give an open-air concert opposite the Cosmopolitan hotel on Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock. It is the intention of the band to give such concerts frequently if sufficient public sympathy and support is forthcoming.

A banker got backed against an embankment east of the Front slide on Tuesday night. The walking between there and Blairmore was really delightful. The car was not a "McLaughlin." Anyway, the car should have received a share of attention!

Now is the time to get out of business and take advantage of the best available means of securing it—through the advertising columns of this paper. General industrial and financial conditions are improving, and The Press will experience one of the brightest seasons in its history.

A local "hello" girl recently attended a Sunday night service and fell asleep during the sermon. At the close the preacher said: "We will now sing hymn number three forty-one—three forty-one." The young lady just yawned in time to hear the number yawned and said: "The line is busy, please call again."

Bills are out announcing an auction sale to be held at Cowley on Saturday, May 2nd, by Auctioneers W. T. Eddy and J. M. Carter. A number of horses and cattle, as well as a list of implements and wagons will be sold. Also a quarter section of arable land, partly broken, together with farm buildings thereon.

At the Presbyterian Synod held in Calgary this week over one hundred delegates from all over the province were in attendance. Rev. F. M. Murray, of Coleman, was unanimously elected moderator, in the place of Rev. J. H. Short of Innisfail. Rev. and Mrs. Muncaster, of Blairmore, were delegates at the Synod.

There will be a big turnout at the Oddfellows anniversary parade on Sunday afternoon. Divine service will be held at Central Baptist church, where Rev. W. T. Young will deliver the anniversary sermon. After the service returns will be made to the L.O.O.F. hall, where the customary speeches and refreshments will be the programme. All Oddfellows and Rebekahs are extended a hearty invitation to take part in the day's proceedings.

The following is a synopsis of a speech delivered at the Alberta Hotel last week by a faithful apostle of ——— ? ? ? —

"Ladies and Gentlemen: I am here this evening in the interest of a strong appetite and my friends, it pains me to see an able-bodied young man hugging the off wall, his eyes piercing every visitor who has a dollar to spend and does not bring a sufficient number of friends to avoid the necessity of the cashier passing back the change. I do not believe in the feeding system, that is in treating others. I am a strong advocate of (to) temperance, and will not tolerate being allowed to stand drying upon the bar. My motto is 'Down with the liquor—until our appetites are quenched.'"

Lawrence and Elliot, two of the most clever dancing partners on the stage today, will positively appear with the Frank Morton Co. at the opera house on Monday and Tuesday nights. These premier dancers are members of the American Dancing Masters Association, which ensures a correct interpretation of the steps of the tango, foxtrot and castle walk, and Mr. Elliot is at all times pleased to explain the intricate steps of the various dances so as to make them plain and graceful.

Saturday was pay-day at the mine. H. T. Lloyd was in town on Thursday of this week.

The usual meeting of the church took place on Sunday night.

Rev. J. C. Anglin came to town from Hillcrest on Sunday night.

J. R. MacDonald and G. A. Le-Voi were Fernie visitors this week.

Don't forget the big picture show on Monday night in the old Union hall.

Steve Bachus, of South Fork, was visiting his sister in Frank this week.

Mr. Berry, of the General Electric Company, was in town this week.

The Social League of Frank have now got their new basket ball ground in good shape.

The association of stationary engineers held their regular meeting at Frank on Thursday night.

Mrs. A. J. McKinnon left on Wednesday to visit her brother's ranch at South Fork, for a few days.

John Jennings, of Frank, was sentenced to six months imprisonment in Lethbridge jail this week for the theft of $14 from the Rocky Mountain Sanatorium.

MARRIED—On Saturday, April the 18th, by the Rev. W. T. Young, Miss Janet Dunlop, of Frank, to Mr. Francis William John Syme, of Lethbridge. The young couple have gone to Lethbridge to reside.

The Bohemian Gymnasium Club have re-organized, and they are expecting a parallel bar to arrive any day from the States, when they will meet for practice three or four times a week in the school house.

A picture show was put on at the old union hall on Monday evening last. All those who attended pronounced the pictures the best ever seen in The Pass. Mr. Legg will put on a show this Saturday night, and also on Monday when several other surprise films will be used.

The Frank football team, visited Coleman on Saturday to play a friendly game, which ended in a draw—no score. Coleman will visit Frank this Saturday to play a return game, and a large number of men have been busy this week getting the grounds in shape. The baseball supporters have also taken a hand, and it is expected that Frank will put a strong team on the diamond this year.

FOUND A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM "I suffered with rheumatism for two years and could not get my right hand to my mouth for the length of time," writes Lee L. Chapman, Mapleton, Iowa. "I suffered terrible pain so I could not sleep or lie still at night. Five years ago I began using Chamberlain's Liniment and in two months I was well and have not suffered with rheumatism since." For sale by all dealers.

Pay Roll Reaches

$8,612,400 Per Year

The average payroll per day of the Alberta coal mining industry for the year 1913 was $28,703, or, for the three hundred days during the year the coal mines were working, the total payroll for the year was over eight and a half millions, or, to be exact, $8,612,400. These were the calculations made for the Bulletin yesterday by John T. Stringer, chief mine inspector for the provincial government.

In speaking of the growing importance of the industry, the more fact that 420,340 tons of coal were mined in the province last year, or that the average number of men employed in and about the mines was 8088, or that there are 250 mines being operated in the province, does not hurt one's self very deeply upon the mind of the ordinary individual. But when the question is reduced to one of dollar and cents some idea of the vital part that the industry is playing in the history of the province is brought home as vividly to the imagination. When it is further remembered that the potential coal supply of the province runs up into the billions of tons, and is practically of such an unlimited character that nobody need worry for hundreds of years in Alberta as to the matter of a fuel supply, it will at once be seen to what huge proportions the annual payroll will attain in a few years, when instead of exporting a few thousand tons per year, as now, whole train loads will find their way every day over the greater part of the Western prairie.

The average payroll per day in the four districts of the province, and the total number of tons mined in each district last year, is as follows:

	Average payroll per day	No. of tons mined
Edmonton	$ 5,776	1913
Cross' Nest	12,329	858,485
Calgary	4,183	1,849,435

Lethbridge 6,440 9 6,020

Totals $28,708 4,866,346
The mines in the Edmonton, Calgary and Lethbridge districts handle only domestic coal, and production therefore drops almost to a minimum during the summer months, so that the payroll is very much greater during the winter. In the Cross' Nest Pass, where steam coal is mined, production continues steadily throughout the year, slightly more coal being mined in that district during July and August of last year than during the actual winter months.

The number of men employed in the industry in the Edmonton district is 1775, their distribution being as follows:

	Above Ground	Below Ground
Bituminous mines	149	340
Sub-bituminous mines	440	844
Totals	589	1184

These figures, it is expected, will be largely increased next year, as a number of new mines are being opened up in the big coal-bearing areas west of Edmonton, and development work is proceeding rapidly.
